

CORNET VAN SISSI RTZ

2019, GELDING

Name: Cornet Van Sissi Rt Z

Age: 7 years

Gender: gelding

Height: 1,67 cm

Location: Croatia

Jumping competition level: 1,40
(ready for more)

Date of birth 02.04.2019.

Color: Dark brown

Bio of the horse:

Cornet van Sissi RT Z is a young showjumping gelding of outstanding pedigree and long-term performance potential.

He is sired by Cornet Obolensky , one of the most eminent and influential stallions of modern showjumping breeding, renowned for transmitting scope, rideability, and competitive mindset. On the dam line, Cornet van Sissi RT Z is out of Sissi van Schuttershof, a proven 1.60 m Grand Prix mare, whose own sport career confirms the athletic and mental strength of this lineage. What makes this pedigree particularly exceptional is the genetic depth: Sissi van Schuttershof is a full sister to one of the most famous stallions in the world, Kashmir van Schuttershof, which places Cornet van Sissi RT Z among horses with elite genetic potential at the highest level.

Cornet Obolensky

Bio of the horse:

Cornet van Sissi RT Z has been in systematic training since the age of three at the Zagreb Hippodrome, under conditions defined by maximum care, expertise, and respect for the horse's physical and mental development. From the outset, the training philosophy has deliberately avoided overloading or rushing the horse, with a clear strategic decision to build a long, sustainable sport career rather than short-term results. All detailed information regarding his training program, development history, and performance progression is available upon request directly from his trainer, Mr. Renato Levanić.

From a sporting perspective, his showjumping potential is unquestionable. To date, he has competed up to 1.40 m internationally, showing ease, confidence, and consistency, and he is clearly ready to progress to higher levels in line with his development plan.

Sissi Van Shuttershof

Bio of the horse:

What truly distinguishes Cornet van Sissi RT Z is his exceptional mindset. He combines a predictable, calm, and kind temperament with a strong willingness to cooperate and please the rider. He is mentally balanced, focused, and straightforward to ride—qualities that are increasingly rare and highly valued in modern sport horses.

Importantly, while Cornet van Sissi RT Z is absolutely suitable for a professional rider, he can also be strongly recommended for a young amateur or even a beginner, provided proper supervision and guidance by a qualified trainer. His character, rideability, and honesty make him an ideal partner for riders seeking both performance and confidence.

In summary, Cornet van Sissi RT Z represents a rare combination of elite genetics, correct development, athletic ability, and exceptional rideability, making him a highly attractive prospect for sport, investment, and long-term partnership. He is available for a sport-oriented home; however, his welfare is of paramount importance to us. We therefore give preference to a five-star environment where, alongside professional standards, genuine care and affection are an integral part of daily management. His clean vet check will be renewed in next several days or on request.
